Respondent	Answer
1280988	She is accessible and helpful. Willing to work with you to develop your ideas and clarify anything you are confused about.
1281712	Anne was so accommodating and made sure that each section flew by. She also made herself very available near the paper deadlines and I felt fully supported.
1283640	Anne was great. She was super helpful and adaptable (the section FB group was a super useful and easy to use tool). She explained things really clearly and kept a very early morning section together and engaged.
1283780	Anne Marie was an excellent TF, the best I have had thus far at Yale. She was always eager to help students and to clarify any confusing material. She led very engaging discussion sections, and we spent a good amount of time going over readings which I found very useful. She provided very specific and constructive feedback and was very helpful in preparing students for assignments.
1284705	Anne Marie is amazing! If I can, I would totally take another course with her as my TA. She is extremely organized, helpful, and passionate--you can definitely tell that she loves what she does and that she loves what you do! She also brought fruits and snacks into section for us, which was such a plus. Nothing bad can be said about her.
1286301	Strengths: Ultra passionate about the class and us learning the material. Gave every resource available from the syllabus, even outside of it sometimes. Fostered dialogue and student interaction whenever it was warranted. Weaknesses: None that I saw
1288577	One of the best TFs I've had at Yale. She worked so hard to make sure we all understood the content and came to section each week SO organized. Before our papers were due, she walked us through the rubrics and made sure we understood what needed to be included and gave us ideas on how to approach it. This was especially helpful for the final paper, where the assignment was slightly unclear. She actually came up with an entire rubric on her own to help us understand what it was meant to look like. She was also so helpful in one-on-one meetings: she seemed so interested and excited to read my paper and helped me troubleshoot the problems I was having. On one of our last sections she mentioned that she has 3 (!!) jobs, which is absolutely absurd especially given than she is one of the most dedicated and kind TFs I've ever had.
1289821	She is very supportive and engaged. Will be there to help however she can whenever you need it and that is a gift!
1290320	She is incredibly thoughtful and knowledgeable! She was always very organized and willing to do anything to help us. Thank you so much!!

1299081	Anne Champagne was very kind and very understanding every section. She put in a lot of work in organizing the class, and it really showed in her level of attention to the concepts and the ways that she structured each session.
1301657	Very helpful. Provides great feedback on essays.
1304134	She was wonderful!
1304153	Anne Marie was an incredible TA. She was so invested in her students and truly wanted them to succeed. She went above and beyond in section, providing resources and meeting with students one on one to help clear up concepts to talk through the assignments. She is caring and passionate and knowledgeable in this topic.
1304315	She was fantastic. Always so prepared for section and had lots of insight.
1304621	Anne Marie was great! She worked really hard to make sure we learned and found section useful.
1306079	Prof Champagne was a passionate and engaged instructor. I appreciated her energy and the way in which she structured section. She gave us a lot of extra info for our papers that felt more overwhelming than helpful. She complained that the course assignments were too vague, but I think that the assignments were pretty standard and their lack of overwhelming specificity gave us space to figure out for ourselves how we'd approach the assignment. I understand that it can sometimes be complicated to work within the constraints of a TF position, but she often engaged with the constraints in a way that felt both disrespectful of the professor and limiting of what we as student could creatively decide.
1309100	Very good about being there for the students, being available outside of class and having fair expectations. However, there were a few too many guides sent out about each assignment, each slightly different, which made it very hard to know what we actually were expected to do, and there always seemed to be one thing we missed.
1312832	Anne Marie Champagne is an excellent TF! She genuinely wants to know how to improve, and aims to support her students in any way she can, whether that's dedicating time in section for preparing us for written assignments, or for giving thorough feedback. She's great. She also brought us morning snacks.
1312904	Anne was incredibly engaged with the course. She was an excellent TA and provided insightful thoughts and comments to all of the material covered in class. Anne helped everyone stay accountable to their own learning and gave everyone the opportunity to interact and participate in section and in class. Anne was a delight to work with and went above and beyond to encourage learning and improvement. It was a joy to be in her section.
